

Description

A single-point safety harness with safety belt is essential equipment for working at height where reliable fall protection is required. Designed to provide maximum safety, comfort, and freedom of movement, this harness features a dorsal attachment point that allows quick and secure connection to fall-arrest systems, while the integrated safety belt provides additional support and positioning capability during work tasks.

Features

| | |
|---|---|
| Material | Polyester |
| Protection type | Fall arrest |
| Anchor point | 3 |
| Standard | EN 361 & EN 358 |